Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee

MEETING OF 7 MARCH 2012

The Economic Regulation Authority Consumer Consultative Committee (ERACCC) was established in 2005 and comprises a diverse range of members representing the interests of a wide range of consumers. The ERACCC exists to provide input to the ERA and to act as an information distribution channel for the ERA for the benefit of Western Australian consumers.

The ERACCC held its first meeting of the year on 7 March 2012. The following presentations were made at the meeting:

ERA Work Program 2012/13 – The ERACCC received a presentation on the ERA's Work Program for 2012/13.

Introduction to the Economics Division – The ERACCC received a presentation on the background of the ERA's Economics Division, which was formed by the recent merger of the Markets and References & Research teams.

Introduction to the Economics Division – The ERACCC received a presentation on the work performed by the ERA's Markets Team.

Mid-West Energy Project Final Decision – The ERACCC received a presentation on the Final Determination for the Mid West Energy Project.

Australian Consumer Law update – The ERACCC received a presentation from Mr Gary Newcombe from the Department of Commerce on the implementation of the Australian Consumer Law.

Regional, Remote & Rural Service Delivery – The ERACCC received a presentation from Mr Greg Will from Horizon Power on the work of the Operations Division at Horizon Power.

More information about ERACCC is available on the ERA website.

The ERACCC will next meet on 6 June 2012.
