What is financial hardship?

The WA Economic Regulation Authority defines financial hardship as:

A state of more than immediate financial disadvantage which results in a residential customer being unable to pay an outstanding amount as required by the retailer, without affecting the ability to meet basic living needs of the residential customer or a dependant of the residential customer.

This could be short term where you find one bill particularly hard to pay, or it could be long term, meaning you find it repeatedly hard to pay your bills.

How can we help you?

We want to provide meaningful assistance to our customers who are experiencing financial difficulties and lessen the possibility of disconnection.

Our customer service team is able to help with queries regarding payment difficulties and financial hardship. They understand the sensitive nature of this situation and it is our policy to always treat you with dignity and respect.

If you are having difficulties paying your electricity bill the best thing to do is call us as soon as you start experiencing difficulties. The sooner you let us know what is going on, the more we can help you.

For short term issues we might be able to arrange a payment plan or give you more time to pay.

For longer term issues there could be rebates or concessions that you are entitled to apply for.

When reviewing our hardship policy, we will consult with relevant financial hardship representatives and organisations.

We also have services for customers who require interpreters or assistance due to hearing, sight or speech impairments.

We just need you to:

- Contact us as soon as you begin having financial difficulties (see contact details at the bottom of this page)
- Advise us if you have a concession card and what type it is. This will help us to identify any rebates or subsidies you could be eligible for
- Understand energy efficiency to save electricity (and your money) where you can

This situation can be avoided if you make the agreed payments or contact us if you are experiencing difficulty making them.

Energy efficiency

Being energy efficient at home can save you money.

Typically, most power is used to cool our homes, which is essential for those living in the hottest parts of Western Australia. However, there are some things you can do to make using appliances like the air conditioner or even the washing machine more efficient.

Handy tips for saving your electricity

- Set your air conditioner at 24 degrees in summer, and the heater between 18 and 20 degrees in winter. This can reduce your electricity bill by up to 10 per cent.
- Make sure windows and doors are closed when using the air conditioner, and make sure the AC unit is sealed.
- Turn appliances off at the wall switch. DVD or CD players and computers that are left on standby still use power.
- When washing clothes, load the machine fully and use cold water.
- Shorten your showers to a maximum of four minutes.
