 - a. You must obtain the Permanent Disconnection Service for property demolitions. The Permanent Disconnection Service must be completed before the Property can be demolished.
 - b. You may elect to obtain the Disconnection Service if You wish to permanently disconnect the Property from the ATCO Gas Distribution System.
3. If You wish to cease the supply of gas to your Property, but do not require the Property to be permanently disconnected from the ATCO Gas Distribution System, You do not require the Permanent Disconnection Service. You should contact Your Retailer to arrange the cessation of gas supply.

- We will notify You of the estimated period when We will attend at the Property to perform the Permanent Disconnection Service (and, where applicable, removal of the metering equipment) (Service Period). That Service Period will be a period approximately 10 Business Days after You receive that notification from Us.
14. We will use Our reasonable endeavours to attend at the Property during the Service Period. However We may be unable to do so due to operational constraints including:

 - (b) if We need to divert resources to unplanned maintenance which should not, having regard to good industry practice, be delayed;
 - (c) if We are delayed by events beyond Our reasonable control.
15. We will notify You as soon as reasonably practicable if We become aware that We cannot attend at the Property during the Service Period and of the reasons why. Such notice may be given by Us verbally. We will also, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify You either verbally or by email of a new Service Period (which period will be as soon as reasonably practicable after the original Service Period having regard to the resources available to Us and the tasks to which We need to allocate those resources).
16. If We suspend the Permanent Disconnection Service in accordance with this document and We cease that suspension, then We will schedule a new Service Period.
17. You may cancel the Permanent Disconnection Service any time prior to when We attend at the Property to commence that service. However if You cancel less than 1 Business Day before the start of the Service Period, a Cancellation Fee may be payable. The Standard Fee will be refunded to You and any Cancellation Fee will be charged to You.

21. You must notify Us of any hazards at the Property of which You are aware. A hazard means something at the Property which a reasonable person would know may present a safety risk to persons working at the Property.
22. If there are hazards at the Property You must provide Us with such assistance as We reasonably request to ensure the safe control of those hazards while We are in attendance at the Property.
23. You must provide to Us:
- (a) such information in relation to the location of other utilities at the Property (including electricity, water and telecommunications infrastructure) as We reasonably request; and
 - (b) such other information in relation to the Property as We reasonably request.

If You do not know the answer to something We ask, You must let Us know this.

How We provide the Permanent Disconnection Service

24. We will provide the Permanent Disconnection Service in accordance with the standards applicable to Us by law.
25. The Permanent Disconnection Service does not involve the removal of any pipework or equipment downstream of the gas metering equipment at the Property. If You require this pipework or equipment removed You must engage a licensed gas fitter to perform this work.
26. We may undertake the Permanent Disconnection Service using Our employees and/or using appropriately qualified subcontractors. The use of subcontractors does not relieve Us of Our obligations to You.

27. The persons who attend the Property on Our behalf will carry appropriate identification which demonstrates they are working on Our behalf.
28. We will notify You either verbally or by email (which may be an automated email) when We have completed the Permanent Disconnection Service.

Required Disturbance to Property

29. To undertake the Permanent Disconnection Service it may be necessary for Us to create access openings or otherwise break, damage or disturb surfaces, coatings, structures, ground, landscaping and other things (including paving, concrete, bitumen, walls, fences, gates, locks, signs, pipes, conduits, cables and trees) at the Property. We will act reasonably and seek to minimise the damage required to undertake the Permanent Disconnection Service.
30. Following completion of the Permanent Disconnection Service, We will fill in any ground at the Property to restore it to approximately its previous level.
31. If, in the course of undertaking the Permanent Disconnection Service, We cause damage at the Property, at Your request We will reinstate or make good, or elect to pay compensation for, the damage, if and to the extent the damage arose because We failed to act reasonably in performing the Permanent Disconnection Service.
32. We will not repair or reinstate any of the damage or disturbance at the Property caused by Us other than in accordance with and to the extent required by clause 30. To the extent You require such repair or reinstatement You must arrange for it at Your cost. However nothing in this clause 32 limits any rights You have against Us if We are negligent or breach the Australian Consumer Law.

Suspension due to Safety Issues

33. If We identify safety issues at the Property which mean We are not able to, having regard to occupational health and safety laws, undertake the Permanent Disconnection Service We will notify You of the safety issues. We may suspend the Permanent Disconnection Service until those issues have been remedied to Our reasonable satisfaction.
34. We may also suspend the Permanent Disconnection Service if You fail to comply with clause 19.
35. If the safety issues, or non-compliance with clause 19, have not been remedied to Our reasonable satisfaction within 30 days of Us notifying You of them, We may by notice to You terminate the Permanent Disconnection Agreement and We may charge You a Cancellation Fee. The Standard Fee will be refunded to You and any Cancellation Fee will be charged to You.

37. The Standard Fee is consideration for the Permanent Disconnection Service and is determined on the basis We only need to attend the Property once.

 - (c) We suspend the Permanent Disconnection Service in accordance with this document;
 - (d) We attend at the Property to assess whether a safety issue has been addressed.
