

Notice of Referral of Dispute

Electricity Industry Customer Transfer Code 2004
Electricity Industry Metering Code 2005

Details of the referring party

Name of Entity _____ ABN _____

Contact person _____

Direct telephone _____ Facsimile _____

Email address _____

Postal address _____

If the party wishes to have legal representation (or is considering whether to have legal representation) please complete the following.

Please note that whether legal representation is permitted is at the absolute discretion of the Authority.

Legal representative _____

Direct telephone _____ Facsimile _____

Email address _____

Postal address _____

Reasons why the party requires legal representation _____

Details of the respondent

Name of Entity _____ ABN _____

Contact person _____

Direct telephone _____ Facsimile _____

Email address _____

Postal address _____

Legal representative (if known) _____

Direct telephone _____ Facsimile _____

Email address _____

Details of any other party to the dispute

Name of Entity _____ ABN _____

Contact person _____

Direct telephone _____ Facsimile _____

Email address _____

Postal address _____

Legal representative (if known) _____

Direct telephone _____ Facsimile _____

Email address _____

Timing

Is the dispute an “urgent” dispute (within the meaning of the Transfer Code or Metering Code)?

If so, why is the dispute an “urgent” dispute?

Acknowledgement

The acknowledgement should be signed by the Chief Executive Officer, Managing Director or other such officer.

I acknowledge that:

1 _____ has followed the dispute resolution procedures as set out in the Electricity Industry Customer Transfer Code 2004/Electricity Industry Metering Code 2005 (as the case may be) before raising this dispute with the Authority.

2 The information provided in this notice of dispute:

(a) may be made available to other parties to the dispute and the Authority’s advisors; and

(b) is correct to the best of my knowledge.

Date:

Signed: _____

Print Name: _____

Designation: _____